

Kidwatching Notes: Observations Lead to Small Group Invitations

What do you see/hear?	Why does it matter to student learning?

Name	What do we know about the student as a reader/writer? (asset-based evidence)	What would we like to know more about?	What are some possible literacy invitations for the student?	What does the student need that he or she is not getting or may not be able to get independently?	What are some small group opportunities that might benefit the student?
