

Compare and Contrast in Two Parts

Name _____ Date _____

Title _____ Author _____

Directions:

1. Choose two characters, two settings, two items, or two conflicts.
2. Show how they are alike and different using the headings on this form.
3. Explain what you learn from comparing and contrasting about a conflict, a character's decision, and/or a character's personality traits.

Name both characters or settings.

Jot, in a list, how they are alike.

Name one character or setting and show how it differs.

Name a second character or setting and show how it differs.

Explain what you learned about a conflict, a character's decision, and/or a character's personality traits.