

8.4 Different Ways to Differentiate a Lesson

Instructions: Use one of these three approaches to differentiating a lesson:

- Content (what you want each student to know)
- Process (how you engage students in thinking about that content)
- Product (how students will demonstrate what they have learned)

Record possible ways to differentiate a selected task or lesson. Select one or more to implement.

