

A New Approach to Contemporary Documentation and Learning

“This book will become an important guide for schools and educators to have on their shelves. The content is original, highly organized and presents many new ideas on documenting learning. It takes what is happening in the world of teaching right now and elevates it to a coherent pedagogical process.”

—from Andrea Hernandez, Educational Consultant

A Guide to Documenting Learning

Making Thinking Visible, Meaningful, Shareable, and Amplified

Silvia Rosenthal Tolisano, Janet A. Hale

What is learning? How do we look for, capture, reflect on, and share learning to foster meaningful and active engagement? This vital resource helps educators answer these questions. A Guide to Documenting Learning facilitates student-driven learning and helps teachers reflect on their own learning and classroom practice. This unique how-to book:

- Explains the purposes and different types of documentation
- Teaches different “LearningFlow” systems to help educators integrate documentation throughout the curriculum
- Provides authentic examples of documentation in real classrooms
- Is accompanied by a robust companion website where readers can find even more documentation examples and video tutorials

Written for educators of any grade level, this book provides insights into contemporary learning and professional learning environments, and emphasizes the power of technology to amplify teaching and learning beyond school walls.
