

Let the power of a read aloud lead students to become joyful, independent readers.

Coming Fall 2023!
Text Structures from Picture Books

Discover the power of read alouds with these titles that use children's literature to create joyful, student-centered literacy experiences. These books provide practical strategies to

- Foster a strong sense of community
- Celebrate the written (and illustrated) word
- Build a foundation for future reading and learning
- Expand vocabulary
- Support budding writers
- Build an inclusive classroom library
- Spark meaningful, age-appropriate conversations about race, identity, and social justice

The Ramped-Up Read Aloud

What to Notice as You Turn the Page
[Grades K–3]

Maria Walther

$26.95, 9781506380049

304 pages, July 2018

Shake Up Shared Reading

Expanding on Read Alouds to Encourage Student Independence
[Grades PreK–3]

Maria Walther

$30.95, 9781071844830

288 pages, February 2022

Rebellious Read Alouds

Inviting Conversations About Diversity With Children's Books
[Grades K–5]

Vera Ahiyya

$30.95, 9781071844144

192 pages, March 2022

Text Structures from Picture Books [Grades 3–12]

Kayla Briseño,
Stephen Briseño,
Gretchen S. Bernabei

$39.95, 9781071920862

Coming October 2023