

This book is dedicated to Marika Neto, who inspired me, took risks with me, and challenged the status quo in education with me. I appreciate your friendship, your energy, and your willingness to push boundaries. Working with you has been one of the highlights of my teaching career. This book would not have been possible without you.