FIGURE 3.13 Backward Mapping Strategy Card for Secondary School Students

Backward Mapping

- Mark the project due date on the calendar.
- Determine the essential components of the project. Estimate the time needed to complete each component.
- Count backwards from the project due date and set completion dates for each component. Be sure to leave a few days before the due date to review and revise your project.
- Hand in the project on or before the due date.