

Teach Like Yourself Manifesto

WHEN I TEACH LIKE MYSELF...

I START WITH WHY.

I make sure all of my teaching choices begin with my core beliefs.

I ALIGN MY TEACHING TO MY BELIEFS.

I view my teaching as a powerful practice I can hone each day.

I SEEK CONNECTION.

I build strong and balanced relationships with myself,
my students and their families, and my colleagues.

I GROW MY PRACTICE.

I drive my professional growth and look for opportunities to learn each day.

I TAKE CARE OF MYSELF.

I realize self-care, space, and my happiness have a huge impact on the kind of teacher I can be.

I AM BRAVE.

I choose to show up as myself and accept that this is exactly what my students deserve.
