

Apple Music vs. Spotify

	APPLE MUSIC	SPOTIFY
What devices can use it?	Mac computers with OS 10.9.5 or newer; PC with Windows 7 or newer. Computers must have iTunes 12.2 iPhone 4 or newer iPad 2 or newer iPod Touch 5 or newer	Web-based streaming is compatible with any PC or Mac computer. Spotify App is compatible with any Android or iPhone as well as Windows 8 phones, iPad, PlayStation 4, and XBOX One. Retailers offer a wide range of Spotify-ready devices such as portable music players and home stereo systems.
How can you try it out?	3-month trial streaming with ads	30-day trial shuffle streaming with ads
What does it cost?	$10/month for a single subscription $15/month for a family plan of up to 6 people	$10/month for a single subscription $5/month per additional person $5/month for students
How much music does it offer?	Unconfirmed as of now, but Apple has promised that the song library will be comparable to Spotify.	Over 30 million tracks
Can I play music offline?	Yes, with subscription	Yes, with subscription
What social features are included?	Share playlists.	Share playlists. Collaborate on playlists. See what friends are listening to.
What other features are included?	iPhone users can search for music using Siri voice commands. Watch music videos. Apple currently has an exclusive contract with Taylor Swift to stream her new album; similar contracts with other artists are promised for the future.	Listen to podcasts. Read song lyrics.