

Chart for I Can Self-Select and Read a Book

at the Independent Reading Station

Place an X in each box to show the child can do this task before allowing students to work with a partner at the Independent Reading station. Refer back to this list as needed to remind specific students that they know what to do and have already proven this.

CHILD'S NAME AND DATE	HOLD A BOOK AND TURN THE PAGES CAREFULLY Child can hold a book right-side up and gently turn the pages from front to back.	CHOOSE A BOOK Child can self-select a book that he or she likes and can read.	FINISH A BOOK Child can focus on reading one book before choosing another.	*READ OR TALK ABOUT THE PICTURES Child can read the words or talk about the book's pictures using a quiet voice.	CLEAN UP Child can return the book to the proper spot.

*indicates emergent readers