

SELF-EVALUATION FOR LEARNING WORDS IN GROUPS

Name _____ Date _____

Directions:

Pair-share with your partner to discuss two questions before writing responses on separate paper. Choose two questions.

- How does learning groups of words help you with reading and writing? Give an example from your reading or writing.

- Why is it helpful to know the situations in which a word can be used? Explain how this supports your use of the word in speaking and writing.

- Look at the entries in the word learning part of your notebook. Do you see progress? Explain using two examples.

- Is talking about words helpful? Explain the reasons behind your answer.
