

---

Index

- Acculturation, 180
Acting White, 197
Advanced Placement (AP) courses, 68–69
Affirmative action, 2–3
African Americans and Latinos
    In Equity Development (ALLIED), 136–137
Almanzán, Jamie, 67
Angelou, Maya, 179–180
Anti-racism, 56–58
Assimilation, 106–107, 180, 207
Avoidance attitude, 197, 199–200
- Barbara, Manny, 136
Beacon School, 266–267
Bell, Derrick, 175, 254
Bell Curve, The (Herrnstein and Murray), 12, 169
Beyond Diversity seminar, 5, 259–261
Biracial identity, 175
Birth of a Nation (1915), 169
Black defined, 104
Blackwell, Catherine, 163
Bridging Cultures (Trumbull, Rothstein-Fisch, Greenfield, and Quiroz), 195
Brooks, Gwendolyn, 179–180
Brooks, Jamyan, 99
Brown, Michael, 2
Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas (1954), 173–174
Bush, George W., 228
Butts, Courtlandt, 230–232
- Cablasan, 175
California:
    affirmative action, 2
    Christopher Elementary (San José), 136–137
    Del Roble Elementary School (San José), 44–49
    English-only legislation, 169
    Johnston H. Cooper Elementary (Vallejo), 130
    SAT research, 39–40 university admissions process, 26
    “Canary in the Mine, The” (Singham), 11
Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools (North Carolina), 24–25, 43–44, 138–139, 140, 255
Chapel Hill High School (North Carolina), 24
Christopher Elementary (San José, California), 136–137
Cisneros, Sandra, 179–180
Clinton, Bill, 228
Collaborative Action Research for Equity (CARE Team), 241, 243, 267–270
Collectivism, 195–196
Collins-Hart, Nettie, 138, 140
Color defined, 104–105
Color identity, 178, 182–185
Color line, 36–39, 169, 173–174
Common Core State Standards, 3, 27
Community:
    Second Condition of Courageous Conversation, 102
    Systemic Racial Equity Transformation Framework, 237, 238*f*, 241–242
Corner identity, 177, 179, 182–185
Counternarratives, 118–119
Courageous Conversation: characteristics of, 25–30
    defined, 26–27
    difficult conversation, 30–31
    essential questions, 26–27
    implementation exercise, 31–33
    legislative policy, 27
    reflections, 24, 25, 30
    See also Four Agreements of Courageous Conversation; Six Conditions of Courageous Conversation

- Courageous Conversation Compass:
 emotional response, 29, 145–148
 Fourth Condition of Courageous Conversation, 128–129, 144–148, 160
 intellectual response, 29*f*, 30, 145–148 interracial discourse scenario, 147–148 model illustration, 29*f*, 145*f*
 moral response, 29*f*, 30, 145–148 Protocol dimension, 15
 reflections, 30, 146
 relational response, 29*f*, 30, 145–148
- Courageous Conversation Protocol:
 deepening conditions, 26, 28, 85 defining Courageous Conversation, 26 engaging conditions, 26, 28, 85
 racial achievement gap, 15–17
 Sixth Condition of Courageous Conversation, 202–203
 sustaining conditions, 26, 28, 85
- Critical Race Theory, 175, 227–228, 254
- Cultural identity, 177–178, 179, 182–185
- Cultural proficiency, 49–50
- Cultural Proficiency* (Lindsey, Nuri Robins, and Terrell), 53
- Culture of silence, 138–139
- Davis, Jordan, 2
- Deepening conditions (Protocol), 26, 28, 85
- Delpit, L., 72, 130, 138
- Del Roble Elementary School (San José, California):
 Gifted and Talented Education (GATE), 46, 47
 math proficiency (2001), 47*f*
 math proficiency (2002), 48*f*
 opportunity gap, 46–48
 race in education, 44–49
 racial bias, 47
 racial diversity, 45
- Diversity training, 74, 190
- Diversity work, 107
- Domino Foundation, 81
- DuBois, W. E. B., 173, 190
- Eden Prairie Schools (Minnesota), 97–98
- Educational desegregation, 173–174
- Educational equity defined, 55–56
- Educational segregation, 172–173
- Eliot, T. S., 163
- Emotional response:
 Courageous Conversation Compass,
 29, 145–148
 defined, 29
- Engaging conditions (Protocol), 26, 28, 85
- Equality defined, 56
- Equity defined, 55–56, 59–61
- Equity Team (E-Team), 239–240, 243, 267
- Ethnicity, 177–178, 179–181, 182–185
- Ethnocentrism, 207
- Eugenics, 169–171
- Expect/accept non-closure (Four Agreements), 27, 70, 75–76
- Experience discomfort (Four Agreements), 27, 70, 74–75
- Fialho, Malcolm, 249–251
- 15-Minute Race Dialogue, 149–155*f*
- Fifth Condition of Courageous Conversation:
 acculturation, 180
 assimilation, 180
 biracial identity, 175
 color identity, 178, 182–185
 color line, 169, 173–174
 corner identity, 177, 179, 182–185
 Critical Race Theory, 175
 cultural identity, 177–178, 179, 182–185
 defined, 28, 166
 educational desegregation, 173–174
 educational segregation, 172–173
 ethnicity, 177–178, 179–181, 182–185
 eugenics, 169–171
 history of race, 166–174
 multiracial identity, 175–176
 nationality, 177, 180–181, 182–185
 race, 178, 179–181, 182–185
 race defined, 165–166, 174–181
 racial autobiography, 185–186
 racial binary, 168–171
 racial educational history, 172–174
 racial identity defined, 175–177
 racializing culture, 179–181
 racializing ethnicity, 179–180 racial social history, 167–172
 red-lining, 171
 reflections, 166, 172, 174, 176, 178, 180, 181
 social Darwinism, 169–170
 Three C's of Identity, 177–179, 182–185
 White flight, 171–172
 White superiority, 168–171
- First Condition of Courageous Conversation:
 defined, 28, 87
 implementation exercise, 94–95
 personal, local, immediate context, 88–89 personal racial impact, 89–92
 racial autobiography, 96–98

- racial consciousness, 91, 92–94
- racial unconsciousness, 92–94
- reflections, 88, 89, 90, 92, 94
- Fisher v. University of Texas* (2013), 3
- Fitzgerald, F. Scott, 180
- Florida, 169
- Four Agreements of Courageous Conversation:
  - diversity trainings, 74
  - educator commitment, 65–66, 70–71
  - expect/accept non-closure, 27, 70, 75–76
  - experience discomfort, 27, 70, 74–75
  - implementation exercise, 77–78
  - professional learning opportunities, 75–76
  - racial autobiography, 79–81
  - racial consciousness, 66–70
  - reflections, 69, 71, 74, 76
  - silenced dialogue, 72–73
  - speak your truth, 27, 70, 72–74
  - stay engaged, 27, 70, 71–72
- Fourth Condition of Courageous Conversation:
  - balancing communication power, 34–136
  - conversational context, 139–140
  - conversational groupings, 141–142
  - conversational parameters, 141–144
  - conversational safety, 137–144
  - Courageous Conversation Compass, 128–129, 144–148, 160
  - culture of silence, 138–139
  - defined, 28, 128–129
  - explicit language, 142–143
  - 15-Minute Race Dialogue, 149–155*f*
  - implementation exercise, 157–162
  - interracial dialogue, 129–137, 148–159
  - personal activity, 148–156
  - racial autobiography, 163–164
  - racialized communication, 130
  - racialized prompts, 142–143
  - reflections, 129, 132, 135, 137, 141, 144, 146, 148
  - silenced dialogue, 130, 138
  - time allotment, 143–144
  - White Talk and Color Commentary, 131–136, 141, 158–159, 204–205
- Frost, Robert, 163
- Garcia, Andy, 136–137
- Garner, Eric, 98
- Genetic model, 12
- Gifted and Talented Education (GATE), 46, 47
- Gradualism, 227–228
- Greenfield, P. M., 195
- Griffith, D. W., 169
- Grisham, John, 180
- Grutter, Barbara, 2
- Grutter v. Bollinger* (2003), 2
- Harvard Law Review*, 175
- Herrnstein, R., 12, 169
- Hillstrom, Rev, 212–214
- History of race:
  - American racial binary, 168–171
  - color line, 173–174
  - educational desegregation, 173–174
  - educational history, 172–174
  - educational segregation, 172–173
  - eugenics, 169–171
  - Fifth Condition of Courageous Conversation, 166–174
  - red-lining, 171
  - social history, 167–172
  - White flight, 171–172
- Hughes, Langston, 163
- Hypervisibility experience, 218–221
- “I Dream” (Vega), 23, 122
- Individualism, 195–196, 197, 198–199
- Individualized racial prejudice, 53
- “In My Heart” (Brooks), 99
- Institutionalized racism:
  - characteristics of, 52–55
  - defined, 52–53
  - individualized racial prejudice, 53
  - power dynamics, 52–53
  - prejudice, 52–53
  - racial inferiority, 54–55
  - racial superiority, 54
- Institutionalized White racism:
  - internalized White racism, 224–225
  - interracial White racism, 225–226
  - intra-racial White racism, 225*t*, 226
  - model illustration, 225*f*
  - racial disparity elimination, 224–227
  - reverse White racism, 225*t*, 226–227
- Intellectual response:
  - Courageous Conversation Compass, 29*f*, 30, 145–148
  - defined, 30
- Internalization of racism, 117
- Internalized White racism, 224–225
- Interracial dialogue, 129–137, 148–159
- Interracial White racism, 225–226

- Intraracial White racism, 225*t*, 226
 Invisibility experience, 218–221
 Irving, Yvette, 45–46
It's the Little Things (Williams), 73, 138, 200
- Jefferson, Thomas, 168
 Johnson, Andrea, 163–164
 Johnston H. Cooper Elementary (Vallejo, California), 130
- Katz, J. H., 52
 King, Leidene, 123–125
 Kivel, P., 199
 Krull, Melissa, 96–98
- Lagoo, Janaka, 127
 Leadership, 237, 238*f*, 239–240, 267
   See also Racial equity leadership
 Learning and teaching, 237, 238*f*, 240–241, 267–270
 Legislative policy:
   Common Core State Standards, 3, 27
   Courageous Conversation questions, 27
   No Child Left Behind Act (2001), 3, 10, 27, 96–97
   Race to the Top, 3, 27
   racial achievement gap, 3, 10
 Liberal interpretation model, 11–12
 Lindsey, R. B., 53
 Linton, Curtis, 4–5, 79–81, 88–89, 177, 181, 206–207
- Martin, Trayvon, 2
 McIntosh, Peggy, 190
 McTighe, Jay, 11
 Model minority, 221–222
 Moral response:
   Courageous Conversation Compass, 29*f*, 30, 145–148
   defined, 30
More Courageous Conversations About Race (Singleton), 237
 Mulatto, 168
 Multiracial identity, 175–176
 Murray, Charles, 12, 169
- Nationality, 177, 180–181, 182–185
 New York City Police Department (NYPD), 98
 No Child Left Behind Act (2001), 3, 10, 27, 96–97
 Noli, Pamela, 66–67
- Non-racist, 56–57
Notes on the State of Virginia (Jefferson), 168
 Nuri Robins, K., 53
- Obama, Barack, 175
 Opportunity gap, 46–48
- Pacific Educational Group (PEG), 5, 43, 236–243
 Partnerships for Academically Successful Students (PASS Team), 242, 243, 270
 Passion, 6, 14, 15, 19–21, 31–33, 254
 Pedersen, Neil G., 138–139, 140
 Persistence, 6, 15, 16, 215–216, 254
Plessy v. Ferguson (1896), 173
 Power dynamics, 52–53
 Practice, 6, 14, 15, 16, 83–85, 254
 Prejudice, 51–53
   institutionalized racism, 52–53
   racism, 51–52
 Professional learning opportunities, 75–76
- Quiroz, Blanca, 195
- Race:
   defined, 50–51, 165–166, 174–181
   history of, 166–174
   Three C's of Identity, 178, 179–181, 182–185
- Race matters:
   affirmative action, 2–3
   court rulings, 2–3
   legislative policy, 3
   personal experience, 1–2, 4–5
   racial consciousness, 5
   research background, 3–6
   research overview, 6–8
- Race to the Top, 3, 27
 Racial achievement gap:
   color line, 36–39
   Courageous Conversation Protocol, 15–17 educational responsibility, 12–14 education for all students, 37
   essential questions, 10, 11
   genetic model, 12
   legislative policy, 3, 10
   liberal interpretation model, 11–12
   opportunity gap, 46–48
   race in education, 44–49
   racial equity leadership, 14–15
   racial identity, 17
   racial terminology, 16–17

- research overview, 15–16
- right-to-learn philosophy, 9–10
- SAT scores, 39–42
- socioeconomics, 39–42
- sociopathological model, 12
- strategy for, 43–44
- systemic racial disparities, 10–14
- Racial affinity groups, 199, 218–221
- Racial binary, 168–171
- Racial consciousness:
  - First Condition of Courageous Conversation, 91, 92–94
  - personal experience, 5, 66–67, 68–69
  - versus racial unconsciousness, 92–94
- Racial Consciousness Flow Chart:
  - awareness development, 68–70
  - First Condition of Courageous Conversation, 92–94
  - levels of, 66–70
  - model illustration, 68*f*, 93*f*
- Racial disparity elimination:
  - Critical Race Theory, 227–228
  - gradualism, 227–228
  - hypervisibility experience, 218–221
  - implementation exercise, 229
  - institutionalized White racism, 224–227
  - internalized White racism, 224–225
  - interracial White racism, 225–226
  - intra-racial White racism, 225*t*, 226
  - invisibility experience, 218–221
  - model minority, 221–222
  - racial affinity groups, 218–221
  - racial autobiography, 230–232
  - reflections, 221, 223, 224, 227, 228
  - reverse White racism, 225*t*, 226–227
  - stereotype threat, 222–223
  - Third Culture experience, 223–224
  - White privilege, 220–221
  - White school context, 221–224
  - White supremacy, 223
- Racial equity leadership:
  - case study, 259–273
  - passion, 6, 14, 15, 19–21, 31–33, 254
  - persistence, 6, 15, 16, 215–216, 254
  - personal leadership, 254–256
  - practice, 6, 14, 15, 16, 83–85, 254
  - racial autobiography, 273–274
  - reflections, 256, 257, 258, 272, 274
  - school leadership, 257–258
  - systemic leadership, 259
  - teacher leadership, 256–257
- Racial framework:
  - color line, 36–39
  - cultural proficiency, 49–50
  - education for all students, 37
  - educator responsibility, 49–50
  - educator willingness, 58–59
  - implementation exercise, 59–61
  - opportunity gap, 46–48
  - race in education, 44–49
  - racial achievement gap, 39–44
  - racial autobiography, 62–64
  - racial responsibility, 37–39
  - racial terminology, 50–58
  - reflections, 36, 38, 44, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 55, 56, 58
  - school example, 44–49
  - socioeconomics, 39–42
  - White privilege, 37–39
  - See also* Systemic Racial Equity Transformation Framework
- Racial identity defined, 175–177
- Racial inferiority, 54–55
- Racializing culture, 179–181
- Racializing ethnicity, 179–180
- Racial messages, 102–104
- Racial other, 116
- Racial responsibility, 37–39
- Racial stereotypes, 102–103
- Racial superiority, 54
- Racial terminology:
  - anti-racism, 56–58
  - common language development, 50–58
  - educational equity, 55–56
  - equality, 56
  - equity, 55–56, 59–61
  - implementation exercise, 59–61
  - individualized racial prejudice, 53
  - institutionalized racism, 52–55
  - non-racist, 56–57
  - power dynamics, 52–53
  - prejudice, 51–53
  - race, 50–51
  - racial inferiority, 54–55
  - racial superiority, 54
  - racism, 50–52
  - racist, 50–51
- Racism defined, 50–52
- Racism* (Weissglass), 51
- Racist defined, 50–51
- Red-lining, 171
- Regents of the University of California v. Bakke* (1978), 2

- Relational response:
 Courageous Conversation Compass,
 29*f*, 30, 145–148
 defined, 30
 Reverse racism, 199, 225*t*, 226–227
 Rothstein-Fisch, Carrie, 195
- Sánchez, Pat, 112–114
- SAT scores:
 American Indian students, 41–42
 Asian American students, 39–42
 Black students, 39–42
 Hispanic students, 39–42
 parental income and race (1995), 40*f*
 parental income and race (2011), 41*f*
 racial achievement gap, 39–44
 socioeconomics, 39–42
 White students, 40–41
- Second Condition of Courageous
 Conversation:
 black defined, 104
 color defined, 104–105
 community issues, 102
 defined, 28, 100, 128
 diversity work, 107
 family issues, 101
 implementation exercise, 108–111
 isolating race, 100–105
 language issues, 102 mobility issues, 102
 personal racial experience, 106–107 poverty issues, 101
 racial achievement gap, 101–102
 racial assimilation, 106–107
 racial autobiography, 112–114
 racial impacts, 105
 racial messages, 102–104
 racial stereotypes, 102–103
 redefining race, 101–102
 reflections, 100, 103, 104, 105, 107
 unpacking race, 105–107
 white defined, 104
- Seeking Educational Equity and Diversity (SEED) training, 190
- Silenced dialogue, 72–73, 130, 138, 206
 “Silenced Dialogue, The” (Delpit), 72, 130
- Silva, Valeria, 260–261
- Singham, M., 11
- Singleton, Glenn, 62–64, 79–80, 197, 237, 273–274
- Singleton, Wendel E.J., 1–2, 233
- Six Conditions of Courageous
 Conversation, 27–28
See also specific condition
- Sixth Condition of Courageous Conversation: acting White, 197
 avoidance attitude, 197, 199–200
 collectivism, 195–196
 Courageous Conversation Protocol,
 202–203
 critical perspective of Whiteness, 203–204 decontextualization, 197, 200
 defined, 28, 187–188
 ethnocentrism, 207
 implementation exercise, 190–194, 209–211
 individualism, 195–196, 197, 198–199
 racial affinity groups, 199
 racial autobiography, 212–214
 reflections, 189, 196, 200, 204, 206, 209
 reverse racism, 199
 silenced dialogue, 206
 sociopolitical construction of whiteness, 203
 universal perspective, 197–198
 White color, 188
 White consciousness, 197–200
 White culture, 194–196
 White entitlement, 194–195, 207
 White identity development, 208–209
 Whiteism, 197–198
 Whiteness in Fifth Condition, 203, 207
 Whiteness in First Condition, 201
 Whiteness in Fourth Condition, 204–207
 Whiteness in Second Condition, 202
 Whiteness in Third Condition, 202–203
 White privilege, 188–190, 194–195, 207
 White Privilege: The Color Line Exercise,
 190–194
 White supremacy, 202, 203
 White Talk and Color Commentary,
 204–205
 whitewashed, 197
- Social Darwinism, 169–170
- Socioeconomics:
 liberal interpretation model, 11–12
 racial achievement gap, 39–42
 SAT scores, 39–42
 socioeconomic gap, 43
- Sociopathological model, 12
- Sotomayor, Sonya, 3
- Souls of Black Folk, The* (Dubois), 190
- Speak your truth (Four Agreements), 27, 70, 72–74

- St. Paul Public Schools (Minnesota):
 Beacon School designation, 266–267
 community, 270
 district context, 259–261
 district-level equity transformation, 263–266
 leadership, 267, 270–273 learning and teaching, 267–270
 racial equity leadership, 259–273
 Racial Equity Policy, 260, 263 school-level equity transformation, 266–273 student demographics, 262–263
 student performance, 264f
 Systemic Racial Equity Transformation
 Framework, 260, 261f, 263–273
- Stay engaged (Four Agreements), 27, 70, 71–72
- Stereotype threat, 222–223
- Structured colorblindness, 117
- Sustaining conditions (Protocol), 26, 28, 85
- Systemic Racial Equity Transformation Framework:
 case study, 260, 261f, 263–273
 Collaborative Action Research for Equity (CARE Team), 241, 243, 267–270 community, 237, 238f, 241–242, 270 dimensions of, 236–243
 district transformation, 236–238
 Equity Team (E-Team), 239–240, 243, 267
 implementation exercise, 244–246
 leadership, 237, 238f, 239–240, 268, 270–273
 learning and teaching, 237, 238f, 240–241, 267–270
 model illustration, 238f
 Partnerships for Academically Successful Students (PASS Team), 242, 243, 270
 principal role, 243
 racial autobiography, 247–251
 reflections, 234, 236, 238, 243
 school culture, 236–238
 vision of equity, 234–236
- Systemic racism. See Institutionalized racism
- Tan, Amy, 179–180
- Tatum, B. D., 199, 219
- Terrell, R. D., 53
- Third Condition of Courageous
 Conversation:
 counternarratives, 118–119
 critical perspectives, 117–120
 defined, 28, 115–116, 128
 implementation exercise, 121–122
 internalization of racism, 117
 multiple points of view, 119–120, 121–122
 racial autobiography, 123–125
 racial other, 116
 reflections, 117, 118, 120, 122
 social construction of knowledge, 115–117
 structured colorblindness, 117
 transference of racism, 117
- Third Culture experience, 223–224
- Thomas, Clarence, 119
- Three C's of Identity, 177–179, 182–185
 color identity, 178, 182–185
 corner identity, 177, 179, 182–185
 cultural identity, 177–178, 179, 182–185
 ethnicity, 177–178, 179–181, 182–185
 nationality, 177, 180–181, 182–185
 race, 178, 179–181, 182–185
- Transference of racism, 117
- Trumbull, E., 195
- Understanding by Design* (Wiggins and McTighe), 11
- Unpacking race, 105–107
- Uprooting Racism* (Kivel), 199
- US Supreme Court:
Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka,
Kansas (1954), 173–174
Fisher v. University of Texas (2013), 3
Grutter v. Bollinger (2003), 2
Plessy v. Ferguson (1896), 173
- Vega, Pablo, 23, 122
- Versalles, Luis, 185–186
- Video Journal of Education, The*, 4, 79
- Volkswagen advertisement, 102–103, 116, 202
- Walker, Margaret, 163
- Weissglass, J., 51
- “We Need to Really Talk” (Lagoo), 127
- White Awareness* (Katz), 52
- White color, 188
- White consciousness, 197–200
- White culture, 194–196
- White defined, 104
- White entitlement, 194–195, 207
- White flight, 171–172
- White identity development, 208–209
- “White Is a Color!” (Singleton), 197
- Whiteism, 197–198

- Whiteness. See Sixth Condition of Courageous Conversation
- White privilege:
  - racial disparity elimination, 220–221
  - racial responsibility, 37–39
  - Sixth Condition of Courageous Conversation, 188–190, 194–195, 207
- White Privilege: The Color Line Exercise, 190–194
- “White Privilege” (McIntosh), 190
- White superiority, 168–171
- White supremacy, 202, 203, 223
- White Talk and Color Commentary, 131–136, 141, 158–159, 204–205
- Whitewashed, 197
- Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria?* (Tatum), 199, 219
- Wiggins, Grant, 11
- Williams, L., 73, 138, 200
- Wise, Tim, 188
- Woods, Tiger, 175–176
- Zucker, Unsuik, 247–248