

A Gift for You

First, I really appreciate your reading the whole book. Thank you. I know there are plenty of other things you could've done instead. In teaching, there always is. As a sign of my gratitude for the time and attention you've given my book, I want to give something to you.

I love teaching, and I plan to write for teachers for as long as I'm in the classroom. I hope we can continue the conversation about how to do better, saner work, and I hope you'll be in touch with any breakthroughs in your own classroom.
