

Student Work, Photo and Video Release

Compass Charter School is committed to building a professional learning community that will be useful to all interested educators. Compass will be documenting ongoing programs and events in the school through the use of videotaping, audio recording and photographing. Your child's school work may be used for family workshops and teacher training as well as for school publications. In order for us to use such content, Compass must obtain parental permission as verified by affirmatively checking the "Yes" box below. Your signature on the Compass Charter School Enrollment Packet Signature Page will certify your selection. Upon signing the page you consent to allow your child's name, voice, photo, and work to be used for purposes of family workshops, teacher trainings, and school related publications. You understand that you will not receive any compensation for this agreement at any time in the future. This permission will be granted for this school year and future school years as well.

Please check one box: *

- Yes. My child's work and photographs of my child can be published on Compass publications
- No. I would prefer my child's work and photographs of my child to not be published on Compass publications.

Upon signing the Compass Charter School Enrollment Packet Signature Page, you are certifying that your selections above are accurate and your own.
