CONTENTS

Note: The term teacher is utilized in the headings of two chapters that are rooted in Visible Learning® research. Teacher is representative of teaching in all contexts. With respect to teacher credibility specifically, the original research was conducted at the college level.

List of Videos x

Acknowledgments xiii

INTRODUCTION 1

A Visible Learning® Primer 2

Visible Learning and Distance Learning 4

A Question of Equity 7

MODULE 1: SELF-CARE 9

Learning Intentions and Success Criteria 10

Conclusion 21

MODULE 2: THE FIRST WEEK OF CLASSES 23

Learning Intentions and Success Criteria 24

Develop a Classroom Management Plan for Distance Learning 25

Establish Norms 28

Link Norms to Class Agreements 30

Identify Expectations for Synchronous Distance Learning 32

Develop and Teach Organizational and Procedural Routines 34

Design a Considerate Website 36

Your First Distance Classes 39

Learn Students' Interests 41

Conclusion 43

MODULE 3: FACULTY–STUDENT RELATIONSHIPS FROM A DISTANCE 44

Learning Intentions and Success Criteria 45

Characteristics of Faculty–Student Relationships 47

Judgment and Will, Not Just Knowledge and Ability 49
Peer-to-Peer Relationships Are Influenced, Too 52
A “Chilly” Classroom 54
Reaching the Hard to Teach 54
Increase Your Touchpoints With All Students 57
Conclusion 61

MODULE 4: TEACHER CREDIBILITY AT A DISTANCE 62
Learning Intentions and Success Criteria 63
Teacher Credibility Defined 66
Conclusion 76

MODULE 5: TEACHER CLARITY AT A DISTANCE 78
Learning Intentions and Success Criteria 79
Start With the Standards and Competencies 82
Create a Flow of Learning: Planning for Class 86
Create Learning Intentions 89
Identify Success Criteria 91
Find the Relevance 96
Conclusion 97

MODULE 6: ENGAGING TASKS AT A DISTANCE 98
Learning Intentions and Success Criteria 99
Think Functions of Engagement, Not Just Tools 102
Set the Conditions for Engagement and Learning 103
Select the Tools That Meet These Functions and Conditions 104
Design Tasks With Engagement in Mind 109
Design a Considerate Schedule to Promote Engagement 111
Conclusion 115

MODULE 7: PLANNING LEARNING EXPERIENCES AT A DISTANCE 116
Learning Intentions and Success Criteria 117
Demonstrating 120
Collaborating 127
Coaching and Facilitating 133

Practicing 137
Conclusion 139

MODULE 8: FEEDBACK, ASSESSMENT, AND GRADING 140

Learning Intentions and Success Criteria 141
Feedback to Students 144
The Socioemotional Links to Feedback 145
Feedback at a Distance 148
Formative Evaluation 150
Summative Evaluations 154
Competency-Based Grading 156
Conclusion 159

MODULE 9: KEEPING THE FOCUS ON LEARNING, DISTANCE OR OTHERWISE 160

Learning Intentions and Success Criteria 161
Learning From Other Crises 163
Use Crisis Learning to Make Colleges and Universities Better 164
Make Learning Better for Students 164
Make Learning Better for Teachers 165
Conclusion 166

Appendix 167
References 169
Index 174
About the Authors 183

Visit the companion website at resources.corwin.com/DLPlaybook-college for downloadable resources and videos.