

Contents

List of Videos	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii

Introduction 1

Chapter 1: The Point of Comprehension Is Not Comprehension 7

But What Is Reading?	10
Teaching Students to Comprehend	10
Skilled Readers or Strategic Readers	13
Constrained and Unconstrained Skills	15
Is Comprehension Enough?	17

Chapter 2: Skill in Reading Comprehension 21

Skill in Reading Comprehension	22
Background Knowledge in Reading	24
Knowledge Must Be Organized	25
Knowledge Must Be Conditionalized	26
Knowledge Must Be Transferred	29
The Sounds of Language	31
Sound-Level Instruction	33
Word-Level Instruction	34

Syllable-Level Instruction	35
Rhyme-Level Instruction	35
Phonics: Sound and Print	36
Phonics Instruction	37
Types of Phonics Instruction	38
Fluency in Reading	41
Reading Fluency Instruction	42
Measuring Fluency	44
Vocabulary in Reading	46
Direct and Intentional Vocabulary Instruction	49
Teaching Word Solving	50
Four Principles for Vocabulary Instruction	51
Comprehension Strategy Instruction	56
Inferring	57
Summarizing and Synthesizing	59
Monitoring	60
Conclusion	62

Chapter 3: Will in Reading Comprehension 63

Will in Reading Comprehension	66
Dispositions That Underpin Learning	68
Resilience: Emotional Strength	70
Resourcefulness: Cognitive Capacity	71
Reflection: Strategic Awareness	74
Relating: Social Sophistication	80
Creating the Classroom Conditions for Will to Flourish	89
Teaching Practices to Build Choice in Your Classroom	90
Teaching Practices to Build Relevance in Your Classroom	93
Conclusion	99

Chapter 4: Thrill in Reading Comprehension

101

Thrill in Reading Comprehension	102
The Right and the Responsibility of Criticism	105
Fostering Deep Comprehension With Critique	106
Reading Through a Critical Literacy Lens	108
Question the Commonplace in a Text	109
Consider the Role of the Author	114
Seek Alternative Perspectives	116
Goal Setting Through Student-Generated Questions	119
Fostering Creative Thinking	121
Think-Outside-the-Box Questions	121
Taking Action	125
Taking Accurate and Ethical Action	129
Conclusion	130

Chapter 5: Tools for Reading Comprehension Instruction

133

Texts as Tools for Fostering Comprehension	135
Text Readability and Text Complexity	136
Text Readability: The Quantitative Measures	136
Text Complexity	139
The Special Cast of Digital Texts	151
Texts in Primary Grades	154
Making Decisions About Text	156
Tasks as Tools for Fostering Comprehension	157
Direct and Dialogic Instruction	157
Direct Instruction	158
Dialogic Instruction	159

An Instructional Framework That Works	162
Focused Instruction	163
Guided Instruction	163
Collaborative Learning	164
Independent Learning	164
Conclusion	165
References	167
Index	177

Visit the companion website at www.resources.corwin.com/comprehension to view videos and downloadable resources.