

Self-Evaluation of Whole-Class Discussions

Name _____ Date _____

Directions:

1. Reflect on the whole-class discussions you've participated in, and think about how they supported your learning and understanding of a text.
2. Read each statement or question below, and answer in your reader's notebook.
  - How do you feel about participating in whole-class discussions? Explain.
  - Have you become a better listener? Explain.
  - List three examples that show how whole-class discussions supported your thinking.
  - How much of the discussion do students control? Is this okay? Explain.
  - How has your analytical thinking improved through these discussions?
  - How do you think the quality of these discussions can be improved?