Why I Don't Like Babies

I don't like babies because they are <sup>(so)</sup> too annoying! I also don't like babies because they <sup>(also)</sup> poop, too. Well, we all poop, but in toilets! They poop on themselves. EWWWWWW!

And they always want attention and they have to have somebody change their diapers.

I always think they should get up and do it themselves. And we have to buy passyfires to keep them quiet, but I'd rather buy Scotch tape and tape their mouths.

So now you know why I don't like babies. They're <sup>(so)</sup> too ugly to keep in your house!

They're <sup>(so)</sup> too stupid to be quiet! And it's <sup>(so)</sup> too hard to take care of a nasty <sup>(so)</sup> too-ugly baby!
