(predicate adjective)

This pen is erasable! I like these a lot! Well, anyway, I got a 100 on my geometry pop quiz. We have a test tomorrow and I feel confident. I'm switching pens to see if the eraser will erase on this one. Yaaa . . . no. It doesn't work. The other pen is just not good. You can erase it with your finger and it is hard to write smoothly. I'm putting it back on Ms. Bernabei's desk. I don't like this pen either because it is smeary, but oh well. At least it enhances the smoothness by letting out so much ink. I guess you can say this pen is agile. It is an asset to my writing. I'm gonna cull the other pens. I'll desist from using them.

(predicate adjective)

(predicate adjective)

(predicate adjective)

(predicate adjective)
