Who's the Greatest?

(who is)

Many people have different opinions about who's the best player in history. Some people think that Michael Jordan is the best. I might think that Jordan is the best, but I don't think that Larry Bird, or Hakeem Olajuwon is.

I really do think that Tim Duncan is the best PF, and one of the best in history. But most people hate it when people say this. They can't accept the fact that a player who's not really flashy can be the best. I'll always believe this.
