

February 24

(a whole lot)

Today for Texas History class, I'm going to teach the whole class a lot about the Reconstruction after the Civil War. It's going to be very cool to teach Ms. Koppe's class. I wish we could teach a lot more often about something. I am excited and nervous to teach

(a whole lot)

(a whole lot)

(a whole lot)

but I read chapter 19 and read a lot of the book, so I think I will do just fine. It's a lot of fun to be a teacher for a day. I got a lot of things for my locker yesterday. It was fun too.

(a whole lot)
