Lay

Proof:

lay = put

Ex:

               (put)

He should lay the candle on the table.

PRACTICE THE CONVERSATION:

A: Please read the sentence.

B: He should lay the candle on the table.

A: Oh no, you mean lie the candle on the table, right?

B: No, I do not.

A: How can you prove that?

B: He should put the candle on the table.

A: Ah! You're right!

B: When you're putting something with your hands, you should use lay, not lie.

A: Perfect! Well done.
