

Me/I

Proof:

Break them up.

Ex:

(I talked)

~~My father and I~~ talked (about me)
about ~~my sister and~~ me.

PRACTICE THE CONVERSATION:

A: Read the sentence, please.

B: My father and I talked about my sister and me.

A: Are you sure it's not my father and me?

B: Yes. You wouldn't say me talked. You'd say I talked.

A: Perfectly done. Now let's look at the end of that sentence.

B: Okay.

A: It should be my sister and I.

B: That may sound more educated, but it's actually wrong.

A: Prove that, please.

B: My father talked about my sister. My father talked about I. See? That's wrong. My father talked about me. Me is the correct word here.

A: You're absolutely right. Me is right.

B: Ha ha.

A: . . .
