Short Story

[NOT REAL!]

As I looked up at the dark sky, I thought three more days, only three more and then they would all know what had happened on that day so many years ago . . .

(but)

. . . except my current wife didn't know what had happened back then.

(but)

. . . except now I am a changed man (I hope).

Now I am John Henson, not that man anymore.

I was born in South Virginia but moved around till I ended up here in Louisiana where that incident took place in the swamps.

(but)

. . . except it all happened so fast . . .
