

March 28

When I grow up . . .

I could be a basketball player, a construction worker, a baby sitter, a soccer player, a banker, a lawyer, a person who makes video games, a dancer, a singer, a teacher, a lawn mower, a hunter, a lacrosse player, a fisher, a football player, an author, a scientist, a doctor, a guitarist, a designer, a sports comintator, a basketball coach, a sports cards worker/owner, a principal, a gym teacher, and a counselor. You can do anything you put your mind to!
