

Commas in a date

Ex:

They were married on

(comma in a date)

March 5, 2004.

PRACTICE THE CONVERSATION:

A: Will you please read the sentence?

B: They were married on March 5, 2004.

A: Do you see a comma in this sentence?

B: I definitely do. It's in the date.

A: Why would someone put a comma there?

B: Well, it just separates the day and the year. It would be confusing without it.

A: So what's the comma rule here?

B: We use a comma to separate a day
