

Capitalize the first word in a sentence

Ex:

(1st word in sentence)

He considered enrolling in Clark High School.

PRACTICE THE CONVERSATION:

A: Read the sentence, please.

B: He considered enrolling in Clark High School.

A: Great. But wait . . . why is he capitalized? It's not a proper noun.

B: No, it's not. It's capitalized for another reason.

A: What other reason?

B: It's the first word in a sentence.

A: Respectfully, so what?

B: So this. Every sentence begins with a capital letter. That's the rule.

A: Smoothly done!
