When I was little, I couldn't find my sister at the store. She told me to go on the other side and get my mom a candy, so I went and when I came back I could not find her. Then I saw her. I ran to her and went to hug her. When I looked up at her to tell her that I couldn't find her, it was another girl. I ran the other way. But my sister called me and she was right behind the girl I hugged. When we got in the car. She started laughing and so did I. —Juliette Urrutia Grade 7
