

December 7

This will be my 15th journal entry. What is it that I have already written in this journal? I don't remember. I will reread what I have written in this journal at the end of the year. I hear  pens clicking,  paper turning,  feet tapping,  chairs squeaking,  pens being tapped on the desk. Is this a sign of boredom? This is all I can write about today.
