Phil's Laugh

Phil has the funniest laughter ever. The funniest moment I've ever seen was on a Friday.

I was having a conversation with Mrs. Black and we were all talking to each other. I said to Mrs. Black, "... Man purse ... ." and Mrs. Black replied, "Did you say man pastrami?"

and Phil was   standing up, chugging water, and Phil heard it and spit out his water. His face got red, and he spit water everywhere. He set his water down and started to lean on the desk,  cracking up. About 30 seconds later, he started walking to the napkins and just fell on the floor,  kicking his feet on the floor, and  banging his fist on the ground, coughing and choking on the ground,  rolling around. I'm laughing so hard. He grabs the paper towels and as he comes back, somebody says something and he falls on the desk,  leaning while on his knees and  doing a laugh with a red face. Phil has the best laugh ever.
