

Infinitives

We use this verb form as a noun.

to go, to be, to do, to see . . .

Ex:

(infinitive)
I really love to go to the games.

PRACTICE THE CONVERSATION:

A: Will you please read the sentence?

B: I really love to go to the games.

A: Yes. Now, where is the infinitive?

B: To go.

A: Yes. How do you know that's an infinitive?

B: It starts with to and has a verb.

A: That's it?

B: Yep.

A: Good.

