

CHECKLIST: DAILY USE OF THE LEARNING MAP AND GUIDING QUESTIONS

Students have their map open on their desk when the bell rings to start the class.
Class begins with a review of the content covered up until the current point in the unit.
The learning map is used to introduce the day's lesson.
Students record new content learned on the learning map.
Each day ends with a review of the material depicted on the learning map.
