

CHECKLIST: INTRODUCING THE LEARNING MAP AND GUIDING QUESTIONS

The teacher spends twenty-five to forty-five minutes to thoroughly introduce the unit.
Students complete their personal map in their own handwriting (at least partially).
The teacher co-constructs the map with students.
The teacher provides many opportunities for students to respond to learning so that learning is highly interactive.
Students store their map in a place where it will be easy for them to retrieve it.
