

Reader's Notebook Rubric

Notebook Quality	Yes (2)	Sometimes (1)	No (0)
Every entry lists the title of the focus lesson, date, and page number. One entry is recorded for every day of class.
Entries show practice and understanding of the strategies, applied to the reader's own book(s).
Entries have examples of text evidence, such as relevant quotes including page numbers.
The reader connects the focus lesson not only to the current choice book, but to previous choice books and/or the class novel as well.
One out of every five entries elaborates in detail, filling up at least two pages in the notebook.
Total points out of 10:			