
Acknowledgments

No person is an island. I consider myself lucky to have met many exceptional people over the years that have been willing to generously share their knowledge and expertise with me.

I especially wish to thank the Apple Distinguished Educator community. I am humbled to be part of such a talented, knowledgeable, and passionate group of educators. In particular, I wish to acknowledge the support I have received from the members of our Inclusive Design Group: Greg Alchin, Phyllis Brodsky, Mark Coppin, Mark Dohn, Sarah Herrlinger, Madaleine Pagliese, Cherie Pickering, and Megan Wilson. I hope you find this book a valuable contribution toward the work we do to provide a more inclusive educational experience for all students.

To the team at the Florida Center for Instructional Technology, I appreciate your support of my work over the years, and I thank you for giving me the opportunity to grow in my knowledge of accessibility as I developed the content for the Tech Ease websites.

A sincere thank you to all of my friends who have been there to provide support in both small and big ways over the many years I have been in school: Heather, BJ, Cara and Rob, Euna, Kris and Gillian, Shannon, and anyone I have forgotten to mention. I appreciate your friendship more than you know.

Cindy, for making my life better in so many ways, thank you. And the biggest thanks of all to my mom, Lidia. Without the many sacrifices you made to bring me to this wonderful country, none of what I have been able to accomplish in my life would have been possible. I also want to acknowledge my dad, Luis Felipe. Although I have not seen you as much as I would have liked over the course of my life, you and my entire family in the Dominican Republic have always been close to my heart. The books you bought me as a child inspired a passion for learning that continues to this day.

Finally, I want to thank two special gentlemen who were role models and influenced the course of my life in a significant way: our family friend Julio, who took my brother and me under his wing at a vulnerable time in our lives and showed us how we could be strong, successful Dominican men, and Rick Newton, my advisor at the Westtown School who pushed me to have high expectations for myself and modeled a life of learning dedicated to social justice and the common good.

At Corwin, I wish to thank Debra Stollenwerk, Desirée Bartlett, Kim Greenberg, Veronica Hooper, Mayan White, and Codi Bowman for making the process of getting this book published such a valuable learning experience for me.

Publisher's Acknowledgments

Corwin wishes to acknowledge the following peer reviewers for their editorial insight and guidance.

Dr. Debi Gartland, Professor of Special Education
Towson University
Department of Special Education
Towson, MD

Dr. Carol S. Holzberg, Technology Coordinator
Greenfield Public Schools
Greenfield, MA

Cheryl S. Oakes, Resource Room Teacher
Wells High School
Wells, ME

Dr. J. David Smith, Professor Emeritus
University of North Carolina at Greensboro