Index

Note: Page numbers in italics indicate tables and figures.

Acknowledgment of issues, 88
Alternatives to conversations, 29–30
Ambivalence, 24–26
Anger, 84
Annotated scripts, 68–70, 121–122
Anonymous quotations, 7, 45
Apologies, 91–92
Approachability, 79–80
Assessment, 39, 107–108
Authenticity, 75–76
Authority, 17–18, 79–80, 97
Avoidance, reasons for authority, lack of, 17–18
  desire to please, 8–9
  distrust, 16–17, 18
  fatigue, 23
  fear of unknown, 12–13
  job descriptions, 20–21
  overwhelmed colleagues, 19
  perfectionism, 15–16
  perfect moments, 15
  personal comfort, 11–12
  personality issues/intentions, 23–24
  relationships, 21–22
  role expectations, 19–20
  safety, 9–11
  urgency, lack of, 13–14
  values in conflict, 14–15, 22

Behaviors of teachers
  assessment, 39, 107–108
  classroom management/climate, 35–36, 101–103
  community participation, 40–41, 109–111 desirable demonstrations in outcome maps, 48–49 differing views on, 43 diversity of students and, 36–37, 103–105 effects of, 67, 68, 120
  etiquette and, 42–43
  lesson planning/instructional delivery, 38–39, 105–107 list of categories, 35
  professionalism, 40, 108–109
Bigger yes, 86
Body language, 79–80, 88
Boomer generation communications, 81
Boundaries, 73
Brandon, Rick, 80
Bryk, A., 42

California Standards for the Teaching Profession, 33–34, 35
Candid conversational style, 85
Case studies, 55–58
Challenges of hard conversations, 2–3
Change, 31, 51–52
  See also Outcome maps
Clarity of language, 80–81, 81
Clarity principle, 4, 97–98
  See also Avoidance, reasons for; Questions before conversations Classroom management, 35–36, 101–103
Climate of classroom, 36, 101–103
Collaboration, 114
  See also Community participation
Colleague conversations, 5–6
Comfort, personal, 11–12
Communication
  discomfort and, 82–84, 86 language choices, 80–81, 81, 98
  logistics, 78–80
  overview, 5, 98–99
  props, 82
  styles of conversation, 84–86
  tips, 94–95
  "what if" conversations, 87–93
  See also Scripts
Community participation, 40–41, 109–111
Competing commitments, 7–8
Conflicts, 22, 115–116
Consequences, consideration of, 28–29
Conversational styles, 84–86
Corney, Andrea, 74, 94
Courage, 26
Covey, Stephen, 33
Crafting, 4, 98
  See also Behaviors of teachers; Outcome maps
Creative conversational style, 84

Credible voices, 79
Critical thinking requirements, 49–51
Crucial Conversations, 74
Culture of equilibrium, 14–15

Desire to please, 8–9
Dialogue, wish for, 67–68, 68, 120
Distrust, 16–17, 18
Diversity, 36–37, 103–105
Division of responsibilities, 89–90
Dress codes, 115

Editing practice, 71–73
E-mails, 90–91, 113–114
Emotions including in conversations, 70–71 preparing for, 9–11, 82–83 in reactions, 83–84
  See also specific emotions
Ethical considerations, 11
Etiquette, 41–43, 115–116
Evidence gathering, 13–14
Examples in conversations, 66–67, 68, 80, 119–120
Excuses, 23–24
Expectations, 19–20, 33–35, 41–43
External resources, 53
Eye contact, 79–80, 82

Facilitators, 88
Failure, consequences of, 30
Fatigue, 23
Fear of unknown, 12–13
Feasibility of change, 31
Feelings, 70–71
Fitzgerald, F. Scott, 87
Follow-ups, 79
Formal authority, 5
Foundation steps for scripts, 64–68, 68
Fullan, Michael, 51–52

Gen Xers' communications, 81
Give Three approach, 89
Grades. See Assessment
Grinder, Michael, 82
Group communications, 87–88, 90–91
Guilt feelings, 24–25

Hard conversations alternatives, 29–30
  benefits, 6
  defined, 2–3
Harsh language, 80
Heifetz, R., 17
Hilliard, Asa, 25

I-Message Feedback, 74–75
Impact and intentions, 71
Impropriety, 90
Inequities, 23
Information gathering, 18, 65
Insightful conversational styles, 85
Instructional delivery, 38–39, 105–107
Intention, 23–24, 71, 93
Internal obstacles, 49–51
Internal resources, 53–54
Investigatory conversations, 65

Job descriptions, 20–21

Kania, J., 17
Kegan, Robert, 7–8
Knowledge requirements, 49–51
Kramer, M., 17

Lahey, Lisa Laskow, 7–8
Language, 80–81, 81, 98
Learner needs, variety of, 36–37
Lee, Blaine, 33
Lee, Enid, 7
Lesson planning, 38–39, 105–107
Lewis, Carl, 27
Lipton, Laura, 89
Listening skills, 99
Locations, 78, 98–99
Logistics, 78–80
Loneliness, 25
Lorde, Audre, 99
Los Angeles County Office of Education, 93

"Management Shorts," 94
Meetings, 114
Memorization of scripts, 75–76, 82
Meyerson, Debra, 27
Micromessages, 16
Millennials' communications, 81

Naming of problem, 66, 68, 119
National Board for Professional Teaching Standards, 33, 35
New educators, 11, 41–43
Niceness, 8–9

Objectivity, 70–71
Obstacles, 49–51
Office staff, 115
Organizational systems, 5
Outcome maps
  benefits, 98
  creation of, 59–60
  implementation support, 60 purpose, 45–46
  questions for, 46–54
  samples, 54–58
Over-thinking, 15
Overwhelmed colleagues, 19

Palmer, Parker, 25, 97
Patterns of behavior, 13–14, 66–67
Patterson, Kerry, 74

Paxton, Perry, 77
Pearce, Terry, 1
Peer-to-peer behaviors, 5–6, 49, 51, 53, 54
Perfectionism, 15–16
Perfect moments, 15
Permission, asking for, 88–89
Personal comfort, 11–12
Personality issues/intentions, 23–24
Personal safety, 9–11
Perspectives, personal, 30–31
Physical education chair sample, 55–56
Plans. See Outcome maps
Please, desire to, 8–9
Power authority and, 17–18 shift from resignation to, 26
  yielding, 25
Praise, 93
Presenting problems, 46–47, 66, 68
Principals desirable behaviors, 48, 50, 52, 54 outcome map sample, 56–57
Principles, 4–5, 97–99
  See also Clarity principle; Communication principle; Crafting principle Problem naming, 46–47, 66, 68
Professionalism, 40, 98, 108–109
  See also Expectations
Props, 82
Protocols (organizational), 5
Purpose as good start, 64–65, 67, 68, 119

Questions before conversations, 27–32
Quick scripts, 73–75
Quiet conversational style, 85

Readings, suggested, 122–124
Ready—aim—fire concept, 4
Relational trust, 42
Relationships, personal, 21–22
Resignation, 25–26
Resources for strategies, 53–54
Responsibilities, division of, 89–90
Role expectations, 19–20
Rough draft practice, 71–73

Safety, personal, 9–11
Samples
  outcome maps, 54–58
  scripts, 119–122
Schneider, B., 42
School community participation, 40–41, 109–111
School savvy etiquette, 41–43, 113–117
Scripts
  annotated, 68–70
  emotions and intent in, 70–71 good starts for, 64–68, 68
  initial comments, 98–99
  memorization, 75–76, 82
  quick versions, 73–75
  rewriting, 71–73
  samples, 119–122
Seating, 78
Seldman, Marty, 80
Silence, 83–84
Sizer, Nancy, 25
Sizer, Ted, 25
Sparks, Dennis, 26
Stakes, consideration of, 28–29
State My Path scripts, 74
Stine, Richard, 63
Strategies for growth, 51–53
Student needs, variety of, 36–37
Success, likelihood of, 29
Superiors, 88–89
Support, hard conversations as, 2–3
Support staff, 115
Survival of the Savvy, 80

Talkative conversational styles, 85–86
Teacher growth. See Professionalism
Team leader outcome maps, 58
Telushkin, Joseph, 94
Tempered Radicals, 27
Tensions, 7
Tentative outcomes, 47
The Students Are Watching, 25
Threshold of urgency, 13–14
Timing, 28, 31, 79, 83
Tone of conversations, 64–65, 68, 119
Topics for discussion, 116–117
Triggers, 30–31, 66
Trust, 15, 42

Ultimate yes, 88
Unknown, fear of, 12–13
Up speak, 79
Urgency, lack of, 13–14
Ury, William, 88

Values, 14–15, 22, 25
Variety of learner needs, 36–37, 103–105

Weak language, 80
Wellman, Bruce, 89
Williamson, Marianne, 18
Words That Hurt, Words That Heal, 94
Worried conversational style, 85

Young, Stephen, 16