

C. TRUST ON OUR TEAM

The importance of a positive school culture can't be overemphasized. It's the key to high-performing teams, an effective learning environment, and a stronger school community. Without it, even the best plans will fall short.

	MY THOUGHTS	OUR COLLECTIVE THOUGHTS
Mutual Respect: How the team operates and communicates
Personal Regard: An individual's openness and sharing of personal information
Competence in Core Responsibilities: Each team member has specific responsibilities, and all are dependent on each other to enact a course of action
Personal Integrity: One's honesty and reliability
