

Appendix 11

Text Structures for Informational/Expository Writing

All About Something—A Description

What I am and what I look like

My parts

The noise
I make

The best thing I do

I'm a Little Teapot

Talking to Something—Personification

What it is and the question

Where it is

What it looks like

What it is
and the question

Twinkle, Twinkle,
Little Star

Three Ways It Can Be

The first way

The second
way

The third
way

Pease Porridge Hot

All About Someone—A Character Analysis

(Name)
was (adjective)
[then reverse it]

One thing that person
wanted

Another thing that person
wanted

Another
thing that
person
wanted

Old King Cole

Prized Possession

What I have

What it
looks like

The best thing
about it

One time . . .

Mary Had a Little Lamb

Retrieved from the companion website for Text Structures From Nursery Rhymes: Teaching Reading and Writing to Young Children by Gretchen Bernabei, Kayla Shook, and Jayne Hover. Thousand Oaks, CA: Corwin, www.corwin.com. Copyright © 2018 by Gretchen Bernabei, Kayla Shook, and Jayne Hover. All rights reserved. Reproduction authorized only for the local school site or nonprofit organization that has purchased this book.