

Appendix 8

Quote Cards (20–30 minutes)

1. Create small groups of 4–5.
2. Place 4–5 quotes on the table from different authors that express different views about the topic you are discussing.
3. Have each person choose one quote and spend some time reflecting on why they chose their particular quote.
4. Allow each person to share with their small group the reason they chose their quote and what they believe is important about it.
5. When everyone has shared, have the small group members reflect on what they learned from this discussion.
