

Book Review Self-Assessment/Reflection and Teacher Rubric

Thanks again for your hard work on this assignment. Writing is a process! Please score yourself in each category (in the “Self Score” column) and answer the questions that follow. Most will require complete sentences; be sure to respond clearly and thoughtfully. Additionally, feel free to make changes to your book review if you find yourself scoring poorly in certain areas.

	Partial	Approaching	Met	Exceeded	Self Score	Teacher's Score
Hook/Introduction	6	9	12	15
How did you draw the reader into your review?
Essential Book Info	2	3	4	5
What background information did you provide about your book? (Title, author, genre, series, publish date, etc.)
Plot Summary	6	9	12	15
Is your summary clear and concise? Does the reader get a solid sense of what your book is about?
Critique & Opinion	10	15	20	25
Was your critique more positive or negative? Did you make a convincing argument to support your claim? Did you share your unique take on the book?
Recommendation & Rating	2	3	4	5
Who is the target audience for your book? What type of readers will enjoy it most?

Did you share some sort of rating along with your rationale?
Clincher/Conclusion	6	9	12	15
How do you conclude your book review?
Sophisticated Syntax & Vocabulary	4	6	8	10
How would you describe your writing style and vocabulary? Share some of your favorite words and/or sentences from your review.
Word Count	2	3	4	5
How many words is your review?
Original Title & Formatting	2	3	4	5
What is your book title? How does your review look visually?
Overall

What are three aspects of your book review that you are most proud of?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What are two aspects of your book review that you improved this week during the revision process?

1.

2.

What is one area you would like to continue to work on in the future? How can your teacher help you to improve your writing?