

Wise Feedback

Consider a student and a situation where you can give wise feedback. Write a paragraph or two in your own words that aims to communicate the following ideas:

1. Communicate your high standards.
2. Offer suggestions for improvement, using specific language.
3. Assure students you believe they can meet the standards and explain how you will provide scaffolding to support them.
4. Point out their progress to date.
5. Give students tools to reflect on their progress for themselves and celebrate it as they continue to improve.
6. Offer some suggestions on what to do next.

Describe the student:

Plan what to say:

Try it out and share what happened. How did the student respond? What did you learn in the process?
