

Chapter 8 Definitions

Classroom walk-through: Brief, infrequent, and informal focused classroom visits by observers aimed at gathering data on classroom practices to assist in instructional improvement.

Observation rubric: A scoring tool that represents the performance expectations for classroom teachers.

Student growth measure: In teacher evaluation an analysis of student assessment data over two or more points in time.

Teacher evaluation: The process of rating the performance and effectiveness of classroom teachers.