Guided Practice for Reading Growth, Grades 4-8

Texts and Lessons to Improve Fluency, Comprehension, and Vocabulary

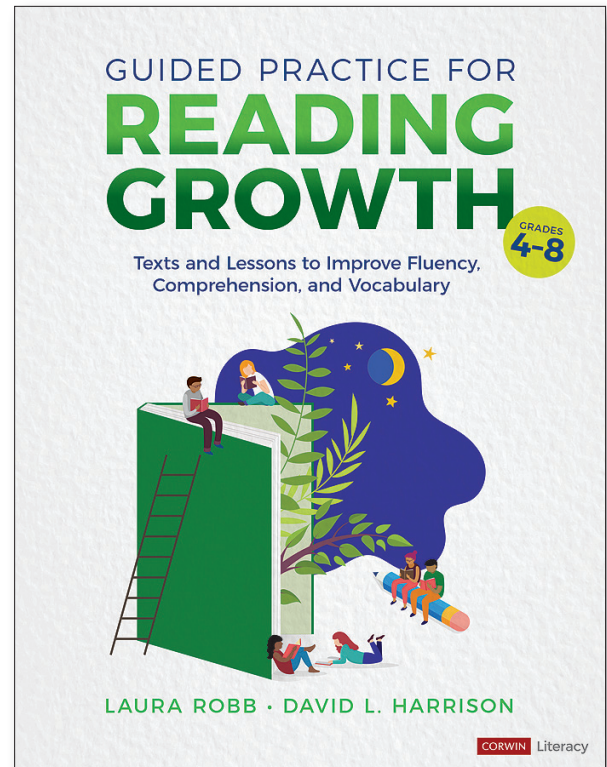

Laura Robb and David L. Harrison

Use these lessons to build developing readers' skill and desire to read, read, read!

Guided Practice for Reading Growth provides all you need to get started. Laura Robb and poet David L. Harrison have collaborated to design twenty-four powerful reading lessons using original poems and short texts that interest your students and encourage them to think deeply. Guided practice lessons are the instructional piece that can move developing readers forward by building their self-confidence and the reading expertise needed to read to learn and for pleasure. This unique book shows you how to:

- Invite students to write about their reading and increase comprehension and recall.
- Ask partners to discuss before, during, and after reading as meaningful talk enlarges students' analytical thinking and understanding.

Use this book to develop students' self-confidence and the reading skill they require to become lifelong, joyful readers!

"One of the hardest parts of helping developing readers can be finding texts that support them. In this compendium of intermediate and middle grade reading lessons, Laura and David suggest one great text after another, making offering readers the practice they need to become stronger, more proficient readers even easier!"
