A Playbook for Rebuilding Agency, Accelerating Learning Recovery, and Rethinking Schools

Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, Dominique Smith, John Hattie

For more than a year now, we educators have been tested and tested again. We've been stretched, we've been pulled, we've been put through the wringer. But now it's time to "rebound." It's time to bounce back, come back better, and benefit from the many lessons learned to reignite engagement, accelerate learning, and move forward with fresh optimism and better systems for schooling.

Enter Doug Fisher, Nancy Frey, Dominique Smith, and John Hattie, whose Distance Learning Playbooks have supported a half million educators across pandemic teaching and who are here now to advise you on this next, absolutely critical leg of our ongoing journey.

Complete with tools and strategies, prompts and exercises, Rebound: A Playbook for Rebuilding Agency, Accelerating Learning Recovery, and Rethinking Schools will help you:

- Address the collective traumas we have experienced during the pandemic
- Evaluate what we have learned about remote teaching and learning
- Redefine classrooms, learning experiences, the ways schools operate, and the very idea of schooling itself

"The greatest travesty that can arise for schools after 2020/21, is to rush back to the old normal, and learn nothing, or little, about what worked well. That's why this book has focused on rebounding, and taking the opportunity to create an even better schooling system, one that serves even more students, and focuses more on what matters most."
