

Index

- Ability grouping, 162–164
- Acquisition
 - deep learning, 76–77
 - of literacy learning made visible, 40–41, 77–79
 - surface learning, 39–40
- Actionable feedback, 66
- Adam, Mona, 116–117
- Adams, Jennifer, 150–153
- Alexander, J. F., 39
- Alphabetics, 45
- Analogies, 116–117
- Anderson, Heather, 77–78
- Annotation of text, 58–59, 89
- Anticipation guides, 42, 43 (figure)
- Application, vocabulary, 49
- Aristotle, 121
- Artiles, Robyn, 120–122
- Availability, vocabulary, 49

- Babbitt, Natalie, 158
- Baker, Holly, 99–100
- Basche, P., 38
- Bereiter, C., 114
- Berkeley, S., 96
- Biemiller, A., 49
- Biggs, J., 73–74
- Bintz, W. P., 37
- Breadth, vocabulary, 49
- Bronnick, K. S., 26
- Brookhart, S. M., 33
- Brown, Marcus, 87–89
- Burek, D., 121

- Camacho, Lupita, 156
- Campbell, Joseph, 112
- Campbell, Roxanne, 141
- Castillo, Katelyn, 157
- Challenge in literacy learning, 21–24

- Checklists, project, 30, 32 (figure)
- Chesterton, G. K., 125
- Ciullo, S., 80
- Clarification, 98
- Clarke, Staci, 157
- Close reading, 89–91
- Closure of direct instruction, 47
- Cloze procedure, 44
- Coakley, Lena, 68
- Cohen, J., 7
- Coleman, David, 19
- Collaborative learning with peers, 67–68, 69 (figure)
- College Board, 19
- Common Core State Standards, 78–79
- Complexity, 24, 25 (figure)
- Comprehension, reading, 45, 56–61
- Concept(s)
 - mapping, 79–82
 - and word sorts, 54–55
- Conceptual knowledge
 - organization of, 115–122
 - teaching students to transform, 122–130
- Conferencing, restorative, 14–15
- Conrad, Haley, 143
- Consolidation
 - deep learning, 76–77
 - literacy learning made visible, 61
 - surface learning, 39–40
- Cooperative versus competitive learning, 30
- Cordova, Y., 52
- Cornell notetaking method, 59, 60 (figure)
- Creativity programs on achievement, 31

- Credibility, teacher, 11–12
- Cruz, Emily, 152–153
- Curriculum-based assessments (CBAs), 147–148
- Curriculum-based measurements (CBMs), 147
- Data, 8–9
 - effect sizes, 5–8
- Day the Crayons Quit, The*, 90
- Deep learning, 22, 72–73
 - acquisition and consolidation in, 76–77
 - acquisition of literacy learning made visible, 77–79
 - close reading and, 89–91
 - concept mapping and, 79–82
 - consolidation of literacy learning made visible, 91–104
 - discussion and questioning in, 83–89
 - metacognitive strategies and, 92–96
 - moving from surface to, 73–76
 - moving to transfer learning from, 107
 - reciprocal teaching and, 98–100
- Deno, S., 147
- Diaz, Junot, 125
- Difficulty, 24, 25 (figure)
- Direct instruction, 45–49, 144–146
- Discussion and questioning, 83–89
- Dodd, Julianna, 157–158
- Dolch sight words, 62
- Durkin, D., 37
- Dweck, C. S., 101
- Education Trust, 78
- Edwards, Sara, 111–112
- Effect sizes, 5–8
 - ability grouping, 162
 - acceleration, 144
 - classroom discussion, 83
 - collective teacher efficacy, 135
 - cooperative versus competitive learning, 30
 - cooperative versus individualistic learning, 68
 - creativity programs on achievement, 31
 - defining, 7
 - direct instruction, 47, 146
 - extended writing, 125
 - feedback, 32–33, 66, 100, 143
 - goals, 27
 - grade-level retention, 161
 - homework, 166
 - integrated curricula programs, 31
 - metacognition, 93, 143
 - mnemonics, 51–52
 - organization of conceptual knowledge, 115
 - peer tutoring, 30, 116, 117
 - problem-based learning, 37
 - problem-solving teaching, 120
 - ranking of, 169–173
 - repeated reading programs, 63
 - response to intervention, 143, 161
 - self-verbalization and self-questioning, 93
 - simulations, 11
 - small group learning, 163
 - student-centered teaching, 30
 - students' prior achievement, 42
 - study skills, 58
 - teacher clarity, 27
 - teacher credibility, 11–12
 - teacher expectations, 15–21
 - teacher–student relationships, 13–15, 144
 - test prep, 165
 - transforming conceptual knowledge, 122
 - vocabulary instruction programs, 49, 146
- Error analysis of student writing, 158, 160 (figure)
- Evidence base for literacy learning, 4–8
- Expectations, teacher, 15–21
- Extended writing, 124–126
- “Fallacy of Success, The,” 125
- Far transfer, 107–109
- Fast thinking, 75
- Feedback, 23, 32–33, 143
 - conditions, 66–67
 - to the learner, 100–104
 - strategies, 34 (figure)
- Fisher, Douglas, 76, 77
- Flores, D., 50
- Fluency, 45
- Freeman, Yolanda, 114–115
- Frey, Nancy, 37, 66, 72, 161
- Generalization, vocabulary, 49
- Gibson, Frank, 155

- Giver, The*, 81–82
 Goals, effect size for, 27
 Goddard, R. D., 135
 Gomez, Joyce, 96
Goodnight Moon, 156
 Google, 126, 127
 Grade-level retention, 161–162
 Graves, 50
 Grouping, ability, 162–164
 Guanotta, Alisa, 68

 Hairrell, A., 80
 Hasbrouck, J., 63
 Hattie, John, 2–3, 4, 8, 16, 113 on feedback, 66
 on internal questions driving learners, 101 on levels of learning, 37 on mind frames, 17–18 on self-efficacy, 24
 on System 2 learning, 75
 Hawthorne, Jim, 120–122
 Hennessey, M. N., 39
Hero With a Thousand Faces, The, 112
 High-road bridging, 109–112
 Hightower, J., 42, 43 (figure)
 Hinge points, 9
 Homework, 165–166
 Hoy, A. W., 135
 Hoy, W. K., 135
 Humphrey, Gina, 136–137

 Impact, 134
 ability grouping, 162–164
 determining, 134–142
 grade-level retention, 161–162
 homework, 165–166
 learning from what doesn't work and, 161–166 matching learning styles with instruction, 164
 postassessment, 137–142
 preassessment, 136–137
 progress monitoring, 147–148
 quality core instruction, 146–147
 responding when there is insufficient, 142–143 response to intervention and, 143–161
 supplemental and intensive interventions, 148–161
 test prep, 164–165

 Independent learning, 47
 Initiate-Respond-Evaluate method, 83
 Insufficient impact, 142–143
 Integrated curricula programs, 31
 International Mind, Brain, and Education Society, 72
 Introductions, 158, 159 (figure)
 Israel, E., 123

Jack Plank Tells Tales, 158
 Jacobs, Brad, 137–141
 Jeffries, Melinda, 129–130
 Jenkins, Steve, 116–117
 Jerald, C. D., 135
 Johnson, Davina, 56

 Kahneman, Daniel, 75
 Kennedy, Jonas, 111–112
 Kent, S., 80

 Lahiri, Jhumpa, 125
 Lamar-Henderson, A., 44–45
 Learning
 collaborative, 67–68, 69 (figure) deep (See Deep learning)
 feedback, 23
 intention, 22, 47
 intentions with success criteria, 26–33 small group, 163–164 student-to-student interaction, 23 styles matched with instruction, 164 surface (See Surface learning) three-phase model, 19–21 transfer (See Transfer learning) from what doesn't work, 161–166
 Leong, Alice, 113–114
 Leveraging of prior knowledge, 41–45
 Literacy learning acquisition made visible, 40–41, 77–79 challenge in, 21–24
 consolidation made visible, 61, 91–104 evidence based, 4–8 general practices, 21–33 importance of, 3 learning intentions with success criteria in, 26–33 necessity of surface, 37–39

- rehearsal and memorization through spaced practice, 61–67
- self-efficacy in, 24–26
- teacher credibility and, 11–12
- teacher expectations and, 15–21
- teacher–student relationships and, 13–15
- London, Jack, 68
- Losos, C., 121
- “Love, Hate Still Stew in the New Melting Pot,” 124, 125–126
- Low-road transfer, 109–112
- Lublin, J., 73–74
- Maier, Angela, 128
- Mapping, concept, 79–82
- Marshak, L., 96
- Marton, F., 73
- Marzano, R. J., 50
- Mastropieri, M. A., 96
- Mathisen, G. E., 26
- Meany, J., 121
- “Melting Pot,” 124, 125–126
- Memorization and rehearsal, 61–67
- Mendoza, Michael, 157
- Meta-analyses on literacy learning, 4–5
- Metacognition, 91, 92–96, 143
- Mind frames, 17–18
- Minimax principle, 16
- Mnemonics, 51–52, 53 (figure)
- Modeling word solving, 52–54
- Monitoring, progress, 147–148, 149 (figure), 154 (figure)
- Moore, D. W., 80
- Murphy, P. K., 39
- My Pile, Your Pile game, 62
- Nagy, W. E., 50
- National Board Certification (NBC), 78
- National Council of Teachers of English, 123
- Near transfer, 107–109
- Negroponde, Dahlia, 81
- Neurological Impress Method (NIM), 152
- New Criticism, 89
- Note-taking, 59–61
- Nystrand, M., 83
- O’Campo, M., 48–49
- One and Only Ivan, The*, 84
- O’Neill, Joseph, 125
- O’Neill, Kiely, 55
- Oral reading fluency norms, 63, 64–65 (figure)
- O’Reilly, Janice, 113–114
- Ortiz, Hector, 85–86
- Palinscar, A. S., 92, 98
- Paredes, Josué, 90–91
- Paris, S., 45
- Patty, D., 9
- Peers
 - collaborative learning with, 67–68, 69 (figure)
 - tutoring, 30, 116, 117–119
- Pelletier, Lonnie, 118–119
- Phonemic awareness, 45
- Phonics, 45
 - instruction, 45–49
- Pickering, D. J., 50
- Postassessment, 137–142
- Preassessment, 136–137
- Precision, vocabulary, 49
- Prediction, 98
- Presentation of lessons, 47
- Prior knowledge, leveraging of, 41–45
- Pritchard, Kevin, 62, 67
- Problem-based learning (PBL), 37
- Problem-solving teaching, 120–122
- Progress monitoring, 147–148, 149 (figure), 154 (figure)
- Project checklists, 30, 32 (figure)
- Quality core instruction, 146–147
- Questioning
 - discussion and, 83–89
 - reciprocal teaching and, 98
 - self-, 92, 93–96, 97 (figure)
- “Quilt of a Country, A,” 125
- Quindlen, Anna, 124, 125
- Readence, J. E., 80
- Reading
 - across documents, 119–120
 - close, 89–91
 - comprehension, 45, 56–61
 - fluency norms, oral, 63, 64–65 (figure)
 - instruction, 45–46
 - repeated, 63, 64–65 (figure), 89
 - wide, 55–56

- Reciprocal teaching, 98–100
- Rehearsal and memorization, 61–67
- Repeated reading, 63, 64–65 (figure), 89
- Response to intervention (RTI), 143–161
 - progress monitoring, 147–148, 149 (figure), 154 (figure)
 - screening, 144–146
 - supplemental and intensive interventions, 148–161
- Restorative conferencing, 14–15
- Retention, grade-level, 161–162
- Risden, K., 38
- Rivera, Alyssa, 142

- Säljö, R., 73
- Scott, Donna, 60–61
- Screening, 144–146
- Scruggs, T. E., 96
- Self-efficacy, 24–26
- Self-questioning, 92, 93–96, 97 (figure)
- Self-regulation, 76, 91, 102–103
- Self-talk, 76
- Sentence combing, 9, 10 (figure)
- Shuster, K., 121
- Slow thinking, 75
- Small group learning, 163–164
- Smith, I., 27
- Socratic Seminar, 123–124
- Sorts, word and concept, 54–55
- Soter, A. O., 39
- Sousa, D. A., 106
- Spaced practice, 61–67
- Specific feedback, 66
- STAR Reading*, 144
- Stevens, Marcus, 113–114
- Student(s)
 - centered teaching, 30
 - engagement and commitment, 47
 - feedback to, 100–104
 - taught to ask their own questions, 96
 - taught to organize conceptual knowledge, 115–122
 - taught to transform conceptual knowledge, 122–130
 - teacher relationships, 13–15
 - to-student interaction, 23
 - writing, error analysis of, 158, 160 (figure)
- Success criteria, learning intentions
 - with, 26–33, 47
- Summarization, 57–58, 98
- Supplemental and intensive interventions, 148–161
- Surface learning, 19, 22, 36–37, 70
 - acquisition and consolidation, 39–40
 - acquisition of literacy learning
 - made visible and, 40–41
 - collaborative learning with peers, 67–68, 69 (figure)
 - leveraging prior knowledge, 41–45
 - mnemonics and, 51–52, 53 (figure)
 - modeling word solving and, 52–54
 - moving to deep learning from, 73–76
 - necessity of, 37–39
 - phonics instruction and direct instruction in context, 45–49
 - reading comprehension instruction in context and, 56–61
 - receiving feedback and, 66–67
 - rehearsal and memorization
 - through spaced practice and, 61–67
 - repeated reading and, 63, 64–65 (figure)
 - vocabulary instruction and, 49–51
 - wide reading and, 55–56
 - word and concept sorts and, 54–55
 - word cards, 52
- Swanson, E., 80
- System 2 learning, 75

- Taber, Paula, 84
- Tan, Amy, 68
- Tano'na, Ina, 108–109, 110
- Teachers
 - clarity, 27
 - credibility, 11–12
 - expectations, 15–21
 - great, 2, 3–4
 - mind frames for, 17–18
 - problem-solving teaching, 120–122
 - reciprocal teaching, 98–100
 - student relationships, 13–15
- Tejeda, Maria, 85
- "Tell-Tale Heart, The," 87–89
- Test prep, 164–165
- Three-phase model of learning, 19–21

- Time for investigating and producing knowledge, 126–130
- Timely feedback, 66
- Tindal, G. A., 63
- Tomlinson, C. A., 22
- Trabasso, T., 38
- Transfer learning, 22, 106
 - extended writing and, 124–126
 - moving from deep learning to, 107
 - paths for, 109–112
 - peer tutoring and, 116, 117–119
 - problem-solving teaching and, 120–122
 - reading across documents and, 119–120
 - setting conditions for, 112–115
 - Socratic Seminar for, 123–124
 - teaching students to organize conceptual knowledge for, 115–122
 - teaching students to transform conceptual knowledge for, 122–130
 - time to investigate and produce in, 126–130
 - types of, 107–109
- Tutoring, peer, 30, 116, 117–119
- Tzeng, Y., 38
- Understandable feedback, 66
- Van den Broek, P., 38
- Van Natta, Kim, 94, 96
- Vasquez, Elvida, 155
- Vaughn, S., 80
- Visible Learning*, 2, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9
- Visible Learning for Teachers*, 4
- Vocabulary, 45, 146
 - instruction, 49–51
- Wanzek, J. A., 80
- Washington, Tyrell, 57–58
- Website evaluation tool, 95 (figure)
- What Do You Do With an Idea?*, 151
- What Do You Do With a Tail Like This?*, 116–117
- Wide reading, 55–56
- Wiggins, G., 66, 78
- Wilkes, Sara, 58
- Wilkinson, I. A. G., 39
- Wilkinson, P., 9
- Williams, L., 37
- Williams, Tim, 54
- Williamson, Franco, 123–126
- Winograd, P. N., 58
- Word(s)
 - cards, 52
 - and concept sorts, 54–55
 - Dolch sight, 62
 - maps, 82 (figure)
- Writing
 - data and impact assessment, 139 (figure), 140
 - error analysis of student, 158, 160 (figure)
 - extended, 124–126
 - introductions, 158, 159 (figure)
- Yates, G., 75
- Yee, Lindsay, 62–63
- Zone of desired effects, 10