

Resources for the Gallery Review

Please find below resources for the primary source gallery review for “Tu lucha es mi lucha”: Mathematics for Movement Building lesson.

1. “Depression Era 1930: Repatriation for Mexican & Filipino Farm Workers” from Picture this: California Perspectives on American History: <http://picturethis.museumca.org/pictures/imperial-valley-%E2%80%93-people-camps>
2. “‘Close to Slavery’ or Legalization? The Farmworkers’ Hard Choice” article (audio or visual reading option): <https://prospect.org/labor/close-to-slavery-legalization-undocumented-farmworkers/>
3. “Governor Newsom – Sign the ‘Farm Worker Housing Act of 2019’” article from Daily Kos: <https://www.dailykos.com/stories/2019/10/7/1890831-Governor-Newsom-Sign-the-Farm-Worker-Housing-Act-of-2019>
4. “Remembering the Manongs and Story of the Filipino Farm Worker Movement” from the National Parks Conservation Association: <https://www.npsa.org/articles/1555-remembering-the-manongs-and-story-of-the-filipino-farm-worker-movement>
5. United Farm Workers Organization: <https://ufw.org/research/history/ufw-history/>

Hourly Wages Northeast Region I vs. Nationally

(Source: USDA, National Agricultural Statistics Service, Annual Farm Labor Surveys dated November 15, 2018; November 16, 2017; November 17, 2016; and November 19, 2015)