

Online Resource B

Useful Special Education Websites

Center for Special Education Finance

<http://www.csef-air.org>

Part of the American Institutes for Research, this site includes information about how special education funds are being spent.

Council for Exceptional Children

<https://exceptionalchildren.org>

The Council for Exceptional Children is a leading professional organization for special educators. This site includes information about their conferences, publications, professional development, and activities.

IDEA

<http://idea.ed.gov>

U.S. Department of Education's main portal for the IDEA; it contains updates on the IDEA, IDEA regulations, articles, and other general information.

Internet Special Education Resources

<http://www.iser.com>

This site provides links to many other sites with information on services and products. It is designed for parents but is useful to professionals.

National Association of Private Special Education Centers

<http://www.napsec.org>

The National Association of Private Special Education Centers is a nonprofit association whose mission is to represent private special education programs and affiliated state associations.

Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP)

<http://www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/osers/osep/index.html>

The official site of the OSEP, part of the U.S. Department of Education; includes information on programs and initiatives, department contacts, reports and publications, and latest news.

Special Education News

<http://www.specialednews.com>

Special Education News is an online newspaper with current articles on special education.