ReQuest Questioner

1. Read the text passage silently and look for important details.
2. After reading, write several questions about the passage.
3. Keep your book open and ask your partner the questions. Listen to their answers and check the reading to make sure it is correct.
4. If your partner's answer is not correct, ask them another question or give them a hint to help them answer the question. Show your partner the answer in the text.
5. When you're finished, trade roles for the next passage.

ReQuest Respondent

1. Read the text passage silently and look for important details.
2. After reading, write several questions you think your partner will ask you about the passage.
3. Close your book and listen carefully to the questions. Recall the information in the reading and answer the questions. You can ask your partner to clarify the meaning of the question if you do not understand.
4. Your partner will show you the answers in the text to any questions you cannot answer.
5. When you're finished, trade roles for the next passage.
